

I Know Someone with Autism Coloring Book

Everybody is different on the outside...
AND the inside

We can all have different noses, different eyes, different hair, different likes/dislikes...

Draw ways the people in your family, or ways your friends are different from you.

We can be different,
and still like the same things.

Draw ways the people in your family, or ways your friends are the same, or what everyone likes to do together!

What makes _____ different is their brain works differently than yours.

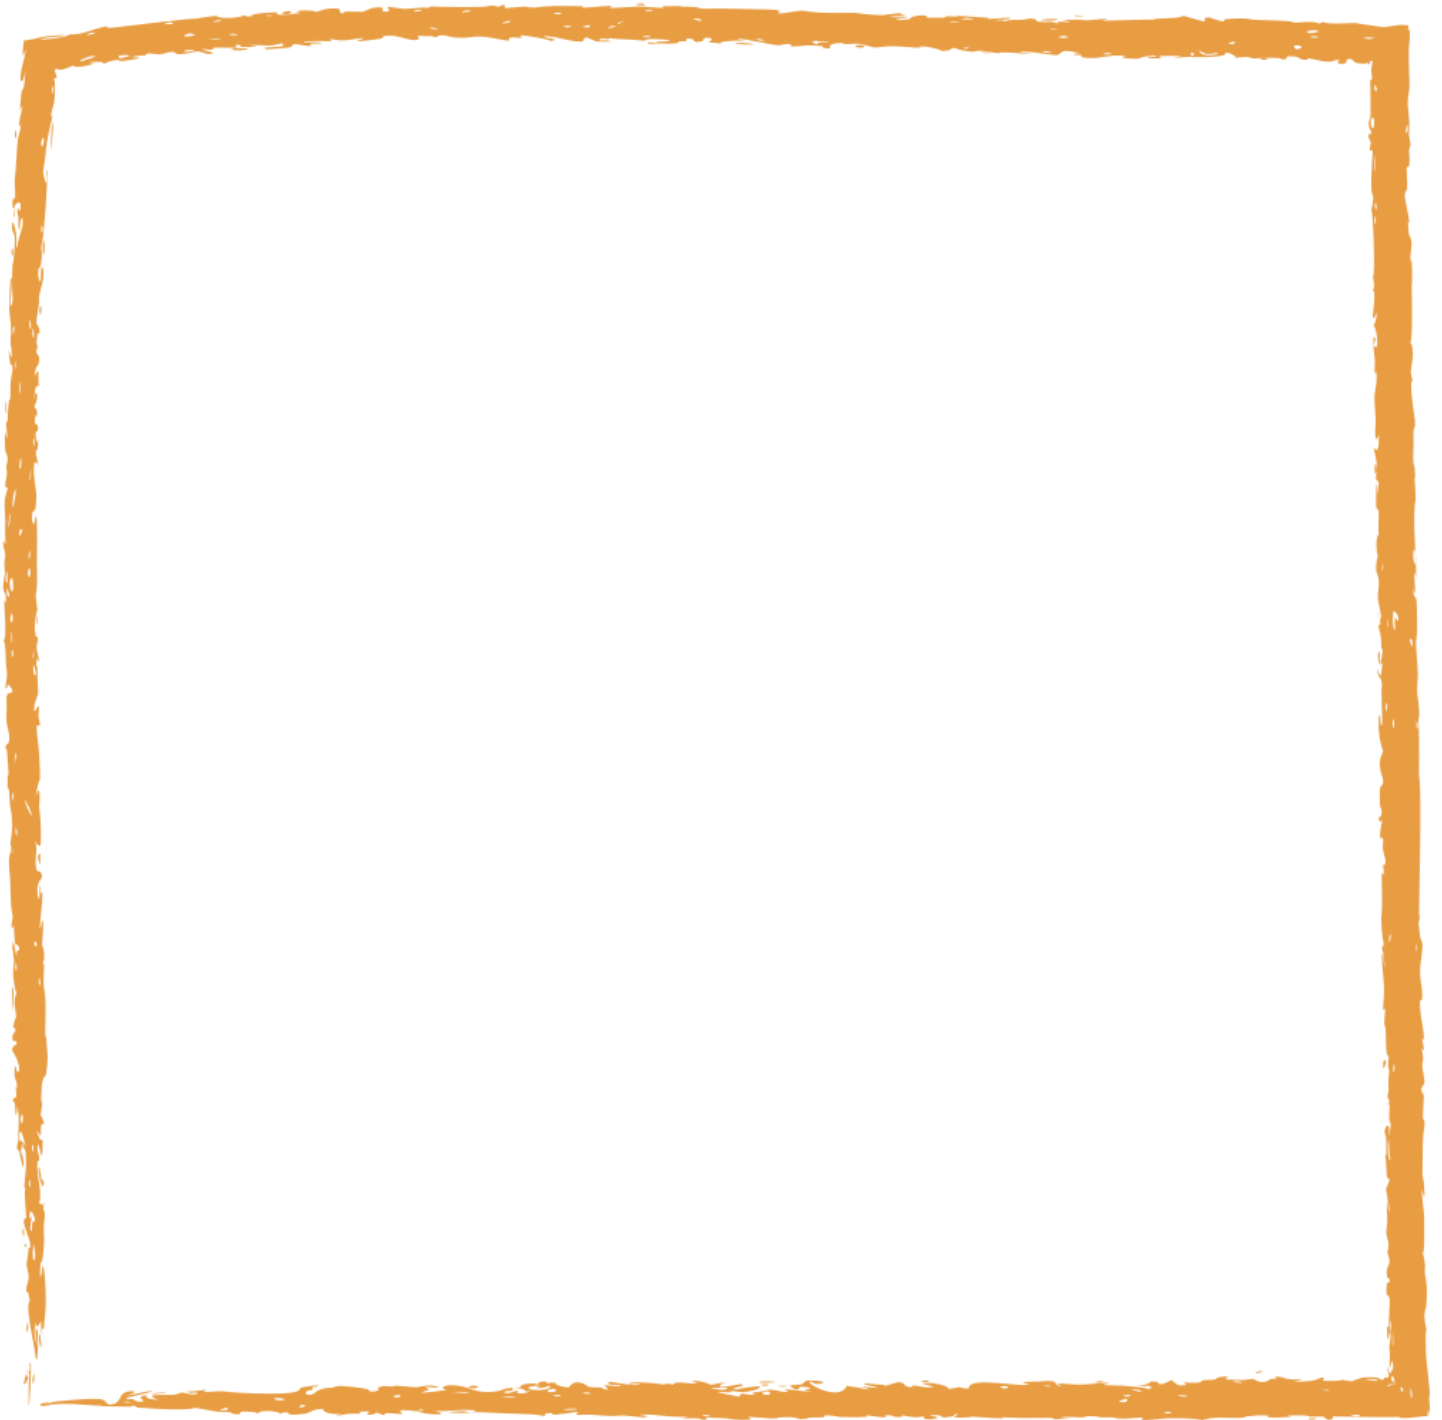

Draw what you think a brain looks like and share one thing your brain is in charge of.

_____ 's brain tells their body what it wants to do, likes, and dislikes.

Draw something they are really good at.

Draw something that is difficult for them.

Though all kids are different, one thing I can do to help them feel included is...
